

Chamber of Commerce Association of Alabama

Chamber Executive of the Year Award

The CCAA Chamber Executive of the Year Award recognizes the exemplary performance and leadership of an Alabama chamber executive with their local chamber. The award recognizes the long-term professional career achievements of the candidate. Criteria to be evaluated includes experience, training and education, service to CCAA and other professional organizations, service to chamber colleagues, ethical conduct in dealing with others, a highly developed sense of professionalism, leadership and an abiding desire to advance the profession of chamber management. Non-professional criteria to be evaluated can include: non-chamber related community participation, civic participation, religious/charitable/educational related activities, etc.

An out-of-state panel of chamber executives will serve as the review panel and award selection committee.
